

CROSSROADS UNIVERSITY

Application for Admission

Dedicated to the preservation of indigenous magical and spiritual technologies and healing systems.

Crossroads University (C.U.) offers a certification program in Southern Hoodoo, rootwork and conjure. The Certification in Professional Rootwork (C.P.R.) credential is an asset for those who wish to carry on indigenous sacred knowledge to others in a culturally competent context, for those who wish to be recognized as having studied on a formal basis with notable elders in the Southern Rootwork and Hoodoo traditions, and for those who seek professional development and continuing education in cultural competency. The C.P.R. credential is only available to adult students who successfully complete the entire program.

Crossroads University currently only accepts students over the age of 18.

Name

Address

City

State

Zip code

Country

Phone

Email

Date of Birth

Ethnicity*

Country of birth

*Optional. This information is for statistical purposes only.

Application for Admission

CROSSROADS UNIVERSITY

Application for Admission

How did you learn about Crossroads University?

By signing, I certify that the information provided on this application and any attached documents are true and accurate to the best of my knowledge. I understand that any omissions or falsifications may result in the withdrawal of a decision to accept me. I also understand that my application materials, once submitted, become the property of Crossroads University and will not be returned or photocopied.

Signed:

Date:

Please complete the application and return via email attachment to admissions@crossroadsuniversity.com.

Please submit pages 1 & 2 only, and keep pages 3 & 4 for your reference.

Application Requirements

1. APPLICATION FEE

A non-refundable fee of $5 (US dollars) is required with your application. Payment may be made through Paypal.

2. AUTOBIOGRAPHY (submit as Word document)

A 1-2 page (1½-line spacing) personal statement/autobiography reflecting upon what led you to apply to CU at this point in your life. Please include significant life events covering most of the following:

- Childhood experience
- Personal growth work/spiritual development
- Significant relationships, including teachers and mentors
- Physical and emotional health history, including any psychotherapeutic experiences, major illnesses, and psychiatric or physically related hospitalizations
- Significant educational, professional and business experiences
- Experience in community and groups, online and offline
- Research, scholarly studies or previous coursework
- Knowledge of southern Folk healing and magic systems

3. GOAL STATEMENT (Submit as Word attachment)

A goal statement answering the following questions:

What are your personal and professional goals? What role will earning a certification at CU play in achieving these goals? What do you want and need from the CU program? What are your expectations of the program with respect to learning requirements, experiential work, and community environment? What do you have to contribute to the program? How do you see yourself using your CU education to contribute to the greater community after graduation? Have you done any independent research or projects?

CROSSROADS UNIVERSITY

Application for Admission

4. PROFESSIONAL RESUME (Submit as Word attachment)
Enclose a professional resume, listing your work and educational history as well as relevant volunteer or training experience in the field of hoodoo, rootwork or any other healing or magical art.

5. PERSONAL INTERVIEW
An interview with the CU Admissions Committee may be held after all application materials have been submitted.

APPLICATION SUBMISSION

If you have any questions, please contact the Admissions Office for further information at: info@crossroadsuniversity.com for more information.

Please note: All application materials, once submitted, become the property of CU and will not be returned, reprinted or photocopied. All information submitted with the application is held in strict confidence and will never be shared with anyone outside of Crossroads University.